I made the call to close the big doors at the bob garage until Monday. $800 dollars of hourly income not worth protesters getting into our garage and lobbies. Kayla let residents know if warranted. He is very concerned as in his conversation with the leaders, they have no idea what they are doing , he says. He also says there is a bigger influx of people outside of Seattle milling around, there is fear in the air. He said someone has to do something. Residents are moving out of the Electric apartments. People are on the roof of Odd Fellows and the White bldg. Guns in the crowd. He said Fire Chief is meeting with Zone leadership and Ron and some others at 1pm today to discuss security and sanitation. He said we have to be there.... Im the messenger... what do you think! Ron also said do the law suit, nothing else will happen but trouble.... Thoughts? Mike_	Read	6/14/2020	6/14/2020 11:44:32 AM(UTC-7)

All the same things I have been seeing and feeling. For sure this is going to effect the bob vacancy if it goes for months. But really guns and no one in charge is a good thing. Things are more likely to self implode that way. We need some excuse for the police to be needed again in there. Some white nationalist showed up this am... this might be a good thing. The chaz group is getting nervous. I think give it a few more days until lawsuit time.... but keep working the back channels as best we can. I'd love to be at the 1.00 but I have to pick my kids up out in north bend at 1.45 from my brother in law who too them to chelan. I doubt much will come out of a meeting... I'll send you a link to one that took place yesterday for 45 min with Fire Chief and protesters._	Sent	6/14/2020	6/14/2020 11:51:34 AM(UTC-7)

There is no such basis or validity in the "independence " and authority of CHAZ, other then the threat of conflict and violence. It's a no win negotiation with a few "leaders" and a probably small, demanding group that wants open conflict. But, I'd love to be wrong, on this one! Beautiful day, though... Our mayor is a wet noodle. She's done. The nights in the zone are dangerous, because of no cops... thugs take advantage of the area. That said during the days it's never been cleaner and I'd take my kids there... no prob. By letting this go, now about 1000 are dug in! So violence will probably necessary. Or a major crime will happen where the police are needed back in and they will then stay. I give it one more full week. This weekend is hot, nights will be crazy, something bad will happen in there and give the mayor and police an excuse to go back in. Fucking liberal Seattle!_	Sent	6/15/2020	6/15/2020 8:46:00 PM(UTC-7)

CNN/NYT/the mayor all tell you it's all a love fest and show you quiet daytime streets, Fox shows you nighttime thuggery. My worry for you guys is that it spreads to other parts of the city.  Don't you have buildings in CHAZ? What are you doing/thinking on those? What are the city "officials" telling you?	Read	6/16/2020	6/16/2020 5:49:51 AM(UTC-7)

For the last 6 months or so, a impressive group of Pike/Pine land owners/ developers have been working to get the City to clear out Cal Anderson Park and restore the SPD East Precinct back to being a "friendly neighbor ", rather then a sight from Beirut! It's great to see companies like Gerding Edlen and Mill Creek get into neighborhood engagement, rather then just permits and construction. I think you could do a terrific story showing how RE Developers really care are the neighborhoods their investing in. I would love to see some press on Pike/Pine that's not about Cops and Protesters!! Could we chat ? Mike	Read	12/14/2020	12/14/2020 11:57:11 AM(UTC-8)

As you can imagine, we removed them and that night they broke 3 windows.. West walls will be removed first and shortly after we will remove the East walls. I have told my team we have to rip the bandaid off.. I am so sorry to hear about the loss.. We will get it down.. Its crucial for us to feel like we can connect back with the community. I wish it was sooner.._	Read	1/27/2021	1/27/2021 7:47:59 AM(UTC-8)
